FOREWORD . . .

Many are the friendships we have made here at Heights; fine, lasting friendships which we shall always cherish, for they will remain an integral part of the memories connected with our high school days.

We have dedicated this book to Alamo Heights men and women now serving in the armed forces. If, in the years to come, the perusal of these pages recalls pleasant memories for them, as well as for you, our classmates and friends, then our mission will have been fulfilled . . .

"Constant reminder of those who are giving their all."

"The torch; be yours to hold it high."

Dear Nannie-
I really was glad to say you're my sister- You'll really go place in Journalism in School. I think that I'd better quit in this 8th Grade

OUR SCHOOL

Alamo Heights High School, where many happy hours are spent.

Nannie dearest,
Well, cutie, it has really been swell knowing you this year and I wouldn't have missed it for anything. I think you are about the most beautiful girl in school, and I'm not kidding. Just stay as sweet and beautiful as you are and you'll go a long way.
Love ya forever,

A MESSAGE FROM THE PRINCIPAL

These are my most tragic and satisfying and hopeful days.

Tragic clouds saturated with blood and sweat and tears hang threateningly in the midst of buoyant life like a deadening and suffocating blanket over the halls of this public high school. There is no glory in war that snuffs out the light of life in my beloved boys; there is no comfort in bestial struggle that is forcing the love of culture and humanity from the souls of our youth into hate and murder. And my heart has cried out in anguish as the news has fallen upon us eight times with a sickening thud that yet another of those I knew and loved so very few years gone by had given up his chance to live on, — and he, too, loved life.

Out of our tears will always come the clarifying rainbow of satisfaction. For years I have defended youth against charges of softness and irresponsibility; today in the greatest struggle this nation has ever had to face for survival, this "soft" youth is intelligently, courageously, generously giving its all upon the field of battle — and winning against the world's best-trained murderers. Youth has now answered its own critics everywhere.

And as the war ends, it is my belief that you currently here preparing for life will show the strength, intelligence, and courage imperative for the proper foundation of the world of tomorrow. So carry high the torch of faith in the good, the beautiful, the true — such a day will you cause to dawn and the sunset for those dead will be justified.

SENIOR CLASS

The Senior Class of 1944—certainly the best class ever. On the following pages, you will find the reason for our success; for on these pages are our classmates, the greatest factor of our happiness during our three years at Alamo Heights. For some of us, Heights is the only school ever attended; but others have joined us from time to time, adding their personality, character, ambitions, and ideas to ours, after finding their places among us —as part of us. So, here we are, the Class of '44 . . . certainly the best class ever!

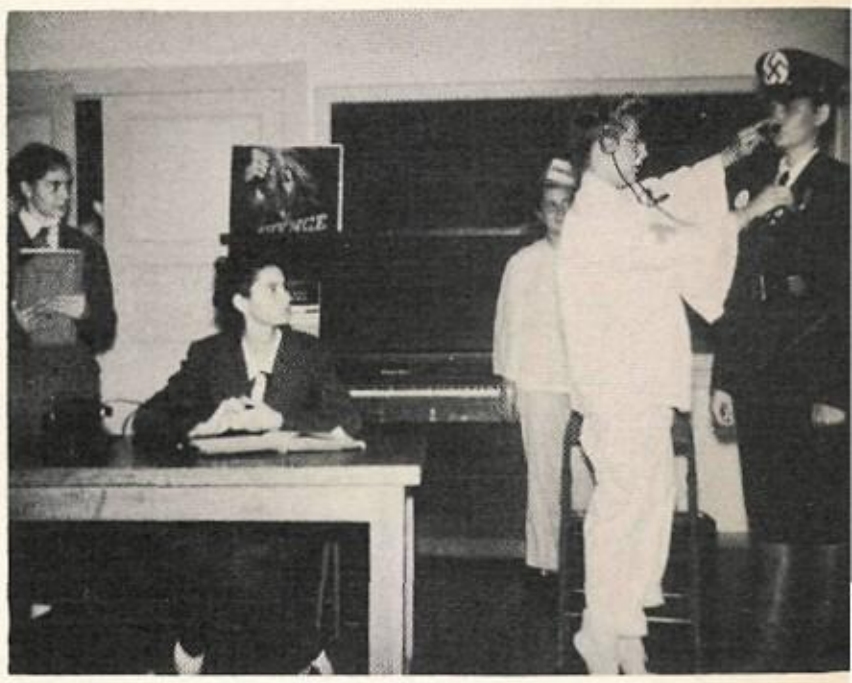
Dear Diary

Sept. 8: Pep Squad tryouts were today, and I went to sleep hearing the officers screaming, "Left, right, left, right." Anyway, I'm now a full fledged member of the Pep Squad.

Sept. 14: Six crazy girls sang for us today to announce the Girl Reserve tea after school. Lots of good food and swell girls!

Sept. 16: Our first football game! Hot Wells went home dejected after a 53 to 7 defeat. Everyone was wonderful, especially Mellard, McDaniel, and Gilliland.

Sept. 21: At an impressive ceremony Jo Anne welcomed the new Service Club members.



Sept. 24: Another football game. We tied New Braunfels 6-6 in an exciting game. Boo and Saunders did a bang-up job of holding the big Unicorns.

Sept. 28: Girl Reserve meeting with a cute play. Beverly Bruff was hilarious in the role of Hitler. Here's a picture of the cast. There was a Hi-Y meeting held here at school at night.

Sept. 30: The new Student Council members gathered in Teach's room for their first meeting. Officers were chosen to help Willie through another successful year.

Sept. 31: The girls who wanted to try out for the new Octette met with Mr. Cockrell in Miss Gilmer's room after school. All the girls were given a fair trial, and a good time was had by all. The selection was a difficult one, as there were so many good voices from which to choose. Nevertheless, by the process of elimination, after serious thought, the new Octette was chosen. Here is the final choice!

Dear Diary

October 8: Can that be? Anyway, the month started with a bang when the football boys journeyed to San Marcos to show them our winning plays. The score was 12 to 0, thanks to Hunt, Mellard, and the whole team.

October 14: Burbank Pep Rally today. Amid shouts and screams of approval, Mrs. Pickens announced the possibility of having an annual; so everyone is figuring how he can save his money for a book. Some of the students are disappointed, however, to learn that we will not be able to publish the "Hoof Print" this year. Clarence Scott, Heights' own Frank Sinatra, sang, much to the swooning students' delight. Sighs and cries of joy filled the room, to the obvious embarrassment of Clarence.

October 15: They did it again! Our boys are really tops. Heights beat Burbank 27 to 0. The Harris-Green combination was on the beam.

October 21: After a little disturbance last night, three Edison boys came to see us today to prove that there are no hard feelings between the two schools. On the 22nd, Willie, Jack Witte, and Mr. Nystrom re-paid their visit. That night we all went to their field for an exciting game, 13-0, our favor.

October 25: All the Girl Reserves trouped to the "Y" for another successful Monday night supper. There was an impressive installation of new members afterwards.

MARCHING EVER FORWARD

Camp Alamo Heights, the best training post in the country, witnessed the arrival of one hundred and thirty raw recruits, the Class of '44, on September 8, 1941. We, buck privates all, were initiated by our cadre unit, "General" Nystrom and his staff of twenty-two.

K. P. duties, in the form of classes and school work, were assigned to all. Among those always peeling potatoes and scouring pans were Privates Gutkowski, Hoffman, Reiner, Browder, and Cratch, who could not seem to understand this new army life. Recruits like Bruff, DuBose, Pierce, Hansard, and Nagel seemed natural in the K. P. role, and made good names for themselves here.

Our top sergeants, Thomas, Brigham, Lighthouse, and McReynolds, began shaping up their units. The unit leaders active in cooperation with their superior officers were Privates Austin, Bissett, Carter, Falk, Gatlin, Herpel, Mellard, Pierce, and Rogers, who were elected to the Student Council.

Rookies who made good on drill teams of major post sports were: "A" football, Allen, Greene, Harris, McDaniel, and Orem; "B" football, Carter, Gatlin, Gilliland, Gordon, Mellard, Parker, and Steele; track, Carter, Dieter, Greene, McDaniel, and Mellard. MacBoo was the lone recruit to letter on the basketball team.

We raw recruits were properly organized in December and four of our fellow rookies were promoted and given stripes. Bobby became First Sergeant Mellard, Sheridan, who was chosen cheerleader as an enthusiastic recruit, was granted corporal's stripes; Mary Falk was designated to take minutes, and was advanced to pfc.; MacBoo was selected to collect company funds as a pfc.

"Castoria" our mascot, the Army mule, was a special, much-in-demand feature at the weekly demonstrations on our football field. Private Bruff was the "kick" behind this new and different idea.

Soldiers who distinguished themselves in our dead language as well as enjoying dancing at the local canteen were Privates Carter, Herpel, Matthaei, McConnell, Moore, Groos, Straughan, Knox, and Walter Williams. Pfc. Falk served as Consul.

Proudly displaying sharp-shooting medals, won for direct hits on County Debate, Declamation, and Spelling ranges are Privates Kelleher, Hansard, Matthaei, Kruckemeyer, Nagel, and Bruff.

In March good-conduct ribbons were awarded Private Bissett and Corporal Sheridan who were elected Most Representative Recruits (sophomores to you).

May brought about our first long furlough, and a welcome one it was. Civilian pursuits were again carried on for three glorious months before we returned as "High Rankers" for our second training period at Camp Alamo Heights.

Our summer furlough over, we one hundred and thirty seasoned recruits reported for duty to our Battalion Commander. Immediately the Battalion was reorganized, and Captain Bobby Mellard is again the highest ranking man of the year. His fellow officers in command are: First Lieutenant Arthur Jones, and Second Lieutenants Falk and McDaniel, who is the Finance Officer this year.

Promotions were earned quickly by Gatlin, Witte, and Sheridan, our cheer leaders for the second training period. Bushick, Jones, Mellard, MacBoo, Greene, Harris, Orem, Allen, Green, Carter, Gilliland, and Hallmark helped our crack athletic squad defeat old rivals such as Camp Edison, Fort Lanier, and Rest Camp New Braunfels.

The Sergeants Club (Hi-Y to those in the know) felt the able managemenet of Jones, McDaniel, and Gilliland who, as Juniors, were elected to aid the president as vice-president, secretary, and treasurer.

Chosen for ability, these two "soldiers in skirts," Villaret and Bruff, aided as historian and parliamentarian of the Post Exchange (another term for Girl Reserve) set-up.

The whole of Camp Alamo Heights turned the barracks inside out in search of scrap metal in October and November. Our spotless post (plenty G. I. of course) did not yield much, but we ransacked local civilian areas and came through with one of the largest scrap piles in the region. The collecting brought about a few days of relaxation from our daily drilling, and gave us a chance to prove we were learning fast and giving the cadre unit proof of the big things which were going to happen during our third training period.

Spring found Burger, Carter, Harrington, Mellard, Orem, and Parker displaying the running ability acquired by getting out of the top sergeant's sight, while at the field practicing for the track meets. Lobbing those grenades over the net after frequent practice brought Pookie and Alma Sue Harris into the Post limelight.

In March, '43, Junior Company Clerks who made good and came up wearing the badge of Quill and Scroll were announced. They were Bruff and Kelleher, and because of their achievements, they were awarded promotions. Also in this month were announced the names of soldiers commended for general military knowledge; these outstanding trainees were Verna Lou Bissett, Beverly Bruff, Wilson Carter, Lily Mae Nagel, and Catherine Villaret.

This marked the end of our second training period, and we were once more granted leaves to recuperate from the tedious preceding year. We could hardly believe that in three months WE would be "running" the grandest training center a soldier could attend.

Those rookies of '42 are the "big shots" of '44. The Commanding General comes to us from the WAC division of Camp Alamo Heights; she is General Bissett. Her staff includes Colonel Harry B. Orem, Executive Officer; Lt. Colonels Bubba Harris, Aide-de-Camp; Malcolm McDaniel, Fiscal Officer; Bob Bushick, Hubert Green, Bobby Mellard, Florence Hand, and Arthur Jones.

A strictly non-G. I. organization gaining fame at the local Officers' Clubs is the Octette. Our four officers holding a position in the group are: Gerry Straughan, Jo Lorraine Horner, Louise Conlon, and Jean McConnell.

The Student Council is dominated this year by us of '44. General Wilson Carter is in supreme command with Mary Falk, vice-president; Pookie, secretary; Verna Lou, treasurer; Harry Orem, sergeant-at-arms, and Melville May, Lily Mae Nagel, John Steele, and Bob Walker. Meetings during fifth period will be long remembered military ventures, thanks to the sometimes bitter debates among our best known military strategists.

The pulse of the Post news is the annual. Every day at some time or another the hard-working staff can be found slaving away on the book. Pookie is the commander of this enterprise, with MacBoo and Willie and the rest of the staff being more than helpful, although a few bitter practice "battles" were fought on and off.

Orders from headquarters in January had us working on the March of Dimes. Our General Bissett collected money from us until we thought we could never eat again. However, it was a very successful campaign, even though the so-called "big shots" did not come through too well in comparison with our green recruits of the Sophomore and Junior classes.

Off-duty relaxation found us attending the Girl Reserve Monday night suppers and teas, Student Council tea dances, and the Hi-Y picnics and dances. Responsible for these tours of fun were the commanding generals Villaret, Carter, and Mellard and their able staffs.

Giving out with grand parading music and G. I. jive were officers Allen, Scott, Dieter, and Farrell, members of the band.

"Over the top" . . . and the whole camp really did go over in a big way for three drives, namely the Christmas bag project, the paper drive, and the "Barter Belle" campaign. The entire Camp Alamo Heights cooperated wonderfully in these drives and added much to our already famous name.

The local WAC contingent initiated a novel election during this, our important year. The Pep Squad chose MacBoo as its "Pin Up Soldier" much to the unhappiness of the other unfortunate officers of our Battalion. Mary Falk led us in "batttle" as our Major, with Twirlers O'Brien and Gerhold, Captains Hand and Villaret and Lieutenants Kelleher, McLernon, Nagel, and Straughan aiding her. General Shirley Heath served her term as executive of the organization.

THE JUNIOR CLASS

Just the in-betweens—not yet high and mighty seniors, but a step above the lowly sophs; this is our junior class. This is a class of which we are indeed proud. Much as we regret leaving these portals, we feel that we are leaving Heights in capable hands. Two of our most prominent juniors are John Tynan and Peggy Stark who preside over this up-and-coming group. They are assisted by advisory presidents, Quinn Williams, Connie Zeurcher, Leah Tritt, and Peggy Whitesides. The best of luck to you, Seniors of 1945!

Dear Diary

October 26: Service Club meeting today. Five "Barter Belles," Pookie, Nanette, Gerry, Curtis and Mary Falk were chosen to collect jewelry to be sent to our boys in the South Pacific for bartering with the natives. Here is a picture of Pookie with the little native gal, Arabella who aided in this campaign. We are proud and happy to say that, due to the splendid cooperation of all, this was a great success.

November 4: Had our pictures for the Annual taken today. There was a lot of confusion but Miss Strobel and Mrs. Pickens survived nicely. Bill and George were a great help. Here they are collecting Marilyn's hard-earned money for her picture. I wonder if I'm at all photogenic!

November 5: Tonight we played South San at their field. Despite the lights going out, the Pep Squad had a good time initiating the "Aujourd'hui" song. The band helped, too, with "Pistol Packin' Mama. Our team came through with another victory.

THE SOPHOMORE CLASS

Although we have often referred to our Sophomore class as the "green bough" of our school's family tree, it really is an addition that shows great promise. By participating in all the school activities that were offered, they have already shown their interest and enthusiasm. This class has more than its share of outstanding students, and we are sure that it, too, will uphold Heights' high standards of excellence. The class officers were ably assisted by the advisory presidents: Robert McDaniel, Bobby McCreight, Jackie Tritt, Carol Howard, and Charla Farrell.

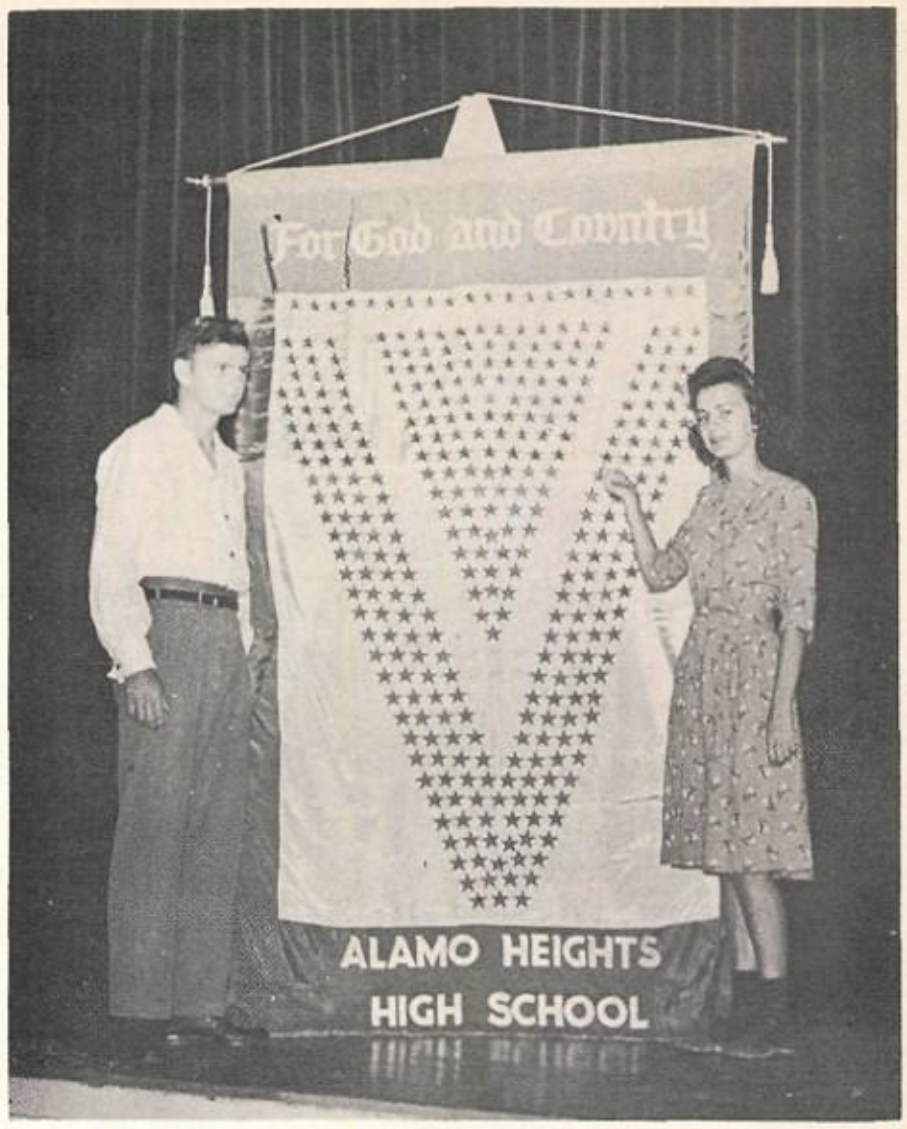
Dear Diary

November 10: We had a very impressive Armistice Day assembly today with the Service Flag dedication ceremonies. There was a lump in everyone's throat when we heard McBoo and Lily Mae. Mrs. Judmaier donated the flag, and it will be placed in the front entrance of the school. Perhaps too soon some of our classmates will have stars to represent them.



November 11: Lanier football game at our stadium. Everyone liked the Pep Squad's drill which we worked on for so long. The boys didn't have much trouble with the Voks, either, so everyone at Heights was happy.

November 17: Mr. De Loss Walker today gave one of the most inspiring speeches we have ever heard. How about more assemblies like that, Mr. Nystrom? It was educational as well as entertaining. He is a fine example for us to follow. The football lettermen (all 27 of them) were announced today.

November 24: Tonight Heights was officially acclaimed District 36A Champions for the second year in succession. The team beat Harlandale 25 to 0 with the hearty approval of the loyal Heights supporters. In two weeks we play New Braunfels there for the Bi-District championship. No wonder all the boys are breaking their dates! They're going to need that sleep.

Dear Diary

It's December already—only five more months and then—! ! But things are happening too fast and furious to worry about graduation yet—so—

December 3: New Braunfels game—one of the best we've ever seen. The Pep Squad had a few distractions, but yelled themselves hoarse for the five cheerleaders and the team. Everyone now realizes what a really keen team we have, led by MacBoo and Bubba.

December 9: After a bitter campaign, blushing Malcolm McDaniel was elected Pep Squad Pin-Up Boy. Our musical groups entertained us with a choral assembly today. Very good, too.

December 10: B. C. S. L. A. convention was held today. The Student Council piled in cars at 9:15 to spend a rainy but enjoyable day at Lanier. Charlene and the "Three Balls of Fire" made us proud of them with their fine entertainment.

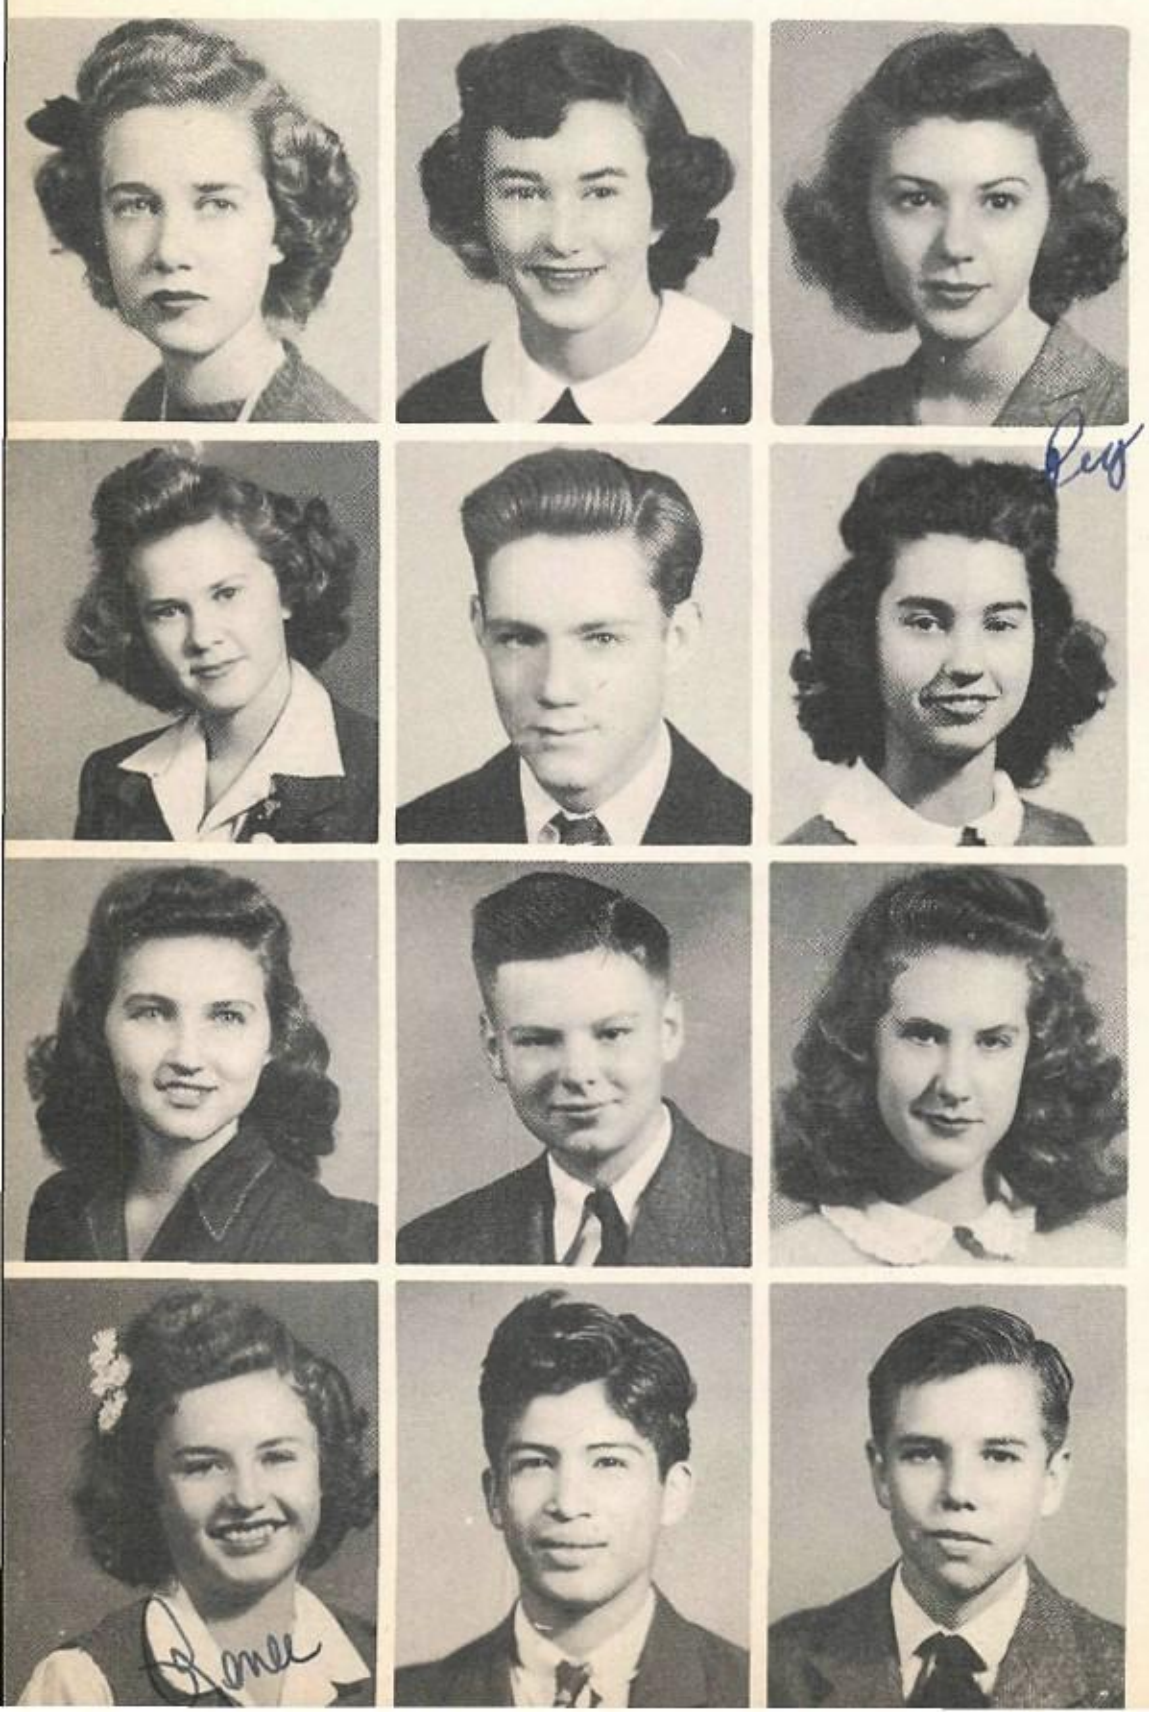
STUDENT COUNCIL

Wilson Carter, President

Miss Lighthouse, Sponsor



One of the oldest and best-known organizations of Alamo Heights is the Student Council.

The Alamo Heights Student Council was organized purposely to aid the school. The sale of football tickets and school stickers (remember how many times you were asked, "Bought your ticket yet?") was carried on again this year by the Council. Would Heights seem the same if there weren't members on hall duty, helping in the office, and selling war stamps?

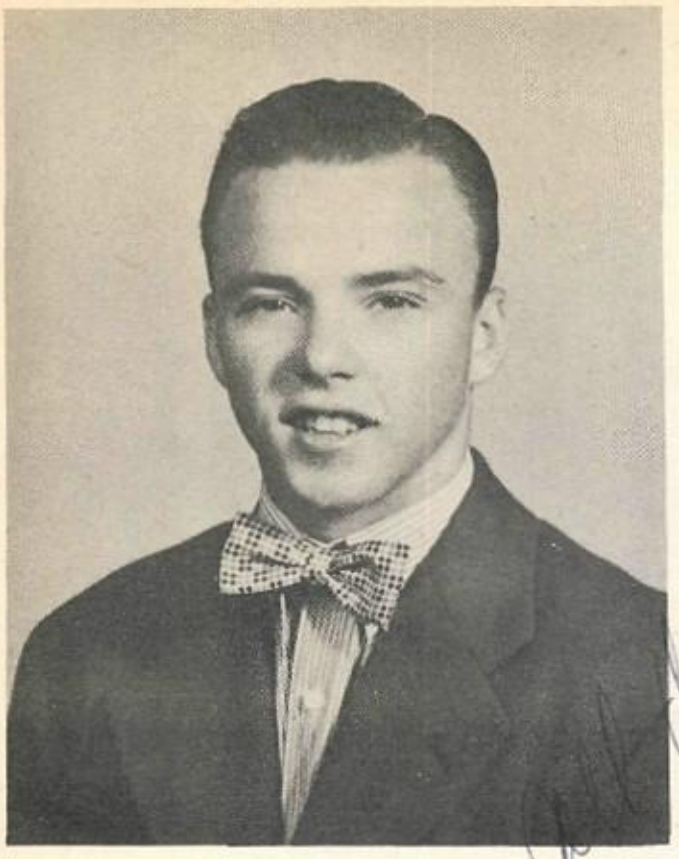
THE HI-Y CLUB



Bobby Mellard
President

Because of the fine cooperative and hard-working spirit of the Hi-Y, many successful campaigns were carried out by this organization during the school year. The members lent a helping hand in the jewelry collection, and the favorable result of the paper drive was largely due to these boys' efforts.

To the delight of the student body, the Hi-Y organized a basketball team in January. Their clean, sportsmanlike play and manner is a true example of a "High standard of Christian character."

GIRL RESERVE CLUB

The Girl Reserves, famous for their high standards, maintain as their purpose, "To find and give the best." Under the splendid leadership of Miss Harrell and Catherine Villaret, the Blue Triangle and Circle has come to be respected.

These ambitious and industrious girls have spent much time this year on worthy charitable projects—making Utility Bags, stuffed animals, and wash cloths, are but a few of the many worthwhile undertakings completed by this club.

The social activities included a tea at the beginning of school honoring the new girls, suppers at the Y.W.C.A., and the Christmas tea at the home of Mildred Kelleher.

National Honor Society

An outstanding feature of our school is the National Honor Society, the object of which is to create a desire for scholarship, to stimulate effort to render service, to promote the development of character and to encourage leadership.

The students have come to realize the distinction and honor of belonging to this organization, and are doing their part to further the four purposes.

These members have stood the test put before them. We are proud of them, for we know they may be depended upon.

Mildred Kelleher, President

Miss Brigham, Sponsor

To journalistically inclined students, Heights offers Quill and Scroll, the national honorary society for high school journalists. The local chapter is called the Richard Halliburton Chapter.

Only three years old, the society has gained the respect of teachers and students. Training which members receive in this society is very helpful in later life, when the experience they have gained here can be displayed. It has become an honor to wear the badge of Quill and Scroll.

THE BAND

The band did remarkably well this year under the guidance of its new director, Mr. O. A. Arsers, and the leadership of Janet Jeffrey as major. Norma Lou Sample and Martha Miller were the majorettes.

The band's version of "Pistol Packin' Mama" and "Red Rhythm Valley," played at all the football games and most of the Pep Rallies, and other more serious songs proved that ours is a versatile band, an organization to make us proud.

Dear Diary

December 15: We had our Christmas assembly a little early this year. After we heard our grand Girls' Glee Club, Lily Mae gave an impressive reading of "The Other Wise Man." In the afternoon the school's best entertainers went to the Brooke General Hospital with cellophane bags filled with gifts for the soldiers. The whole school participated in the campaign, and it brought about the same successful results as every other project. Here are Bobby, Shirley, Catherine, Jo Anne, and Willy with the gifts.

December 16: The Lions Club entertained our football team tonight. Bubba and Malcolm received a trophy on behalf of the team. Everyone went home thoroughly satisfied. Could it have been the wonderful dinner or the presence of Morgia and Curtis?

December 17: The stuffed animals made by the Girl Reserves were turned in today to be taken to the underprivileged children.

December 14: Class officer elections were held today in advisory, and everyone is pleased with the results. Tonight the football team was given a banquet by the school, and as a token of their appreciation, the boys presented Coach Martin with a ring. Looks like a mighty big box for a ring, Coach!

Dear Diary

December 19: The Girl Reserve New Girl Tea was held today. Here are some of the officers who deserve lots of praise for their cooperation which made the tea so successful.

January 14: The paper drive collection was made today. Everyone responded and brought in plenty of waste paper. Here are some pictures of students who should have been in class, but were "working"!

January 17-19: We all struggled through mid-term exams these three days. Need I say more?

January 25: Another Girl Reserve Monday Night Supper at the "Y. W." Afterwards, five brave girls journeyed to the Harlandale gym to watch the Hi-Y play basketball. At least five of us have school spirit—or could it be something else?

Dear Diary

January 26:
SNOW!!

January 28: The first Student Council tea dance was held today in the study hall. There were good drinks, pretty girls, lots of stags, and grand music. Can't we have another tea dance soon?

January 31: The Hi-Y defeated T. M. I. tonight in a very exciting game. Miss Sims, Miss Scoggins, and Miss McReynolds were more nervous than anyone else during the last forty seconds. Thanks, boys, for the final score of 37-36.

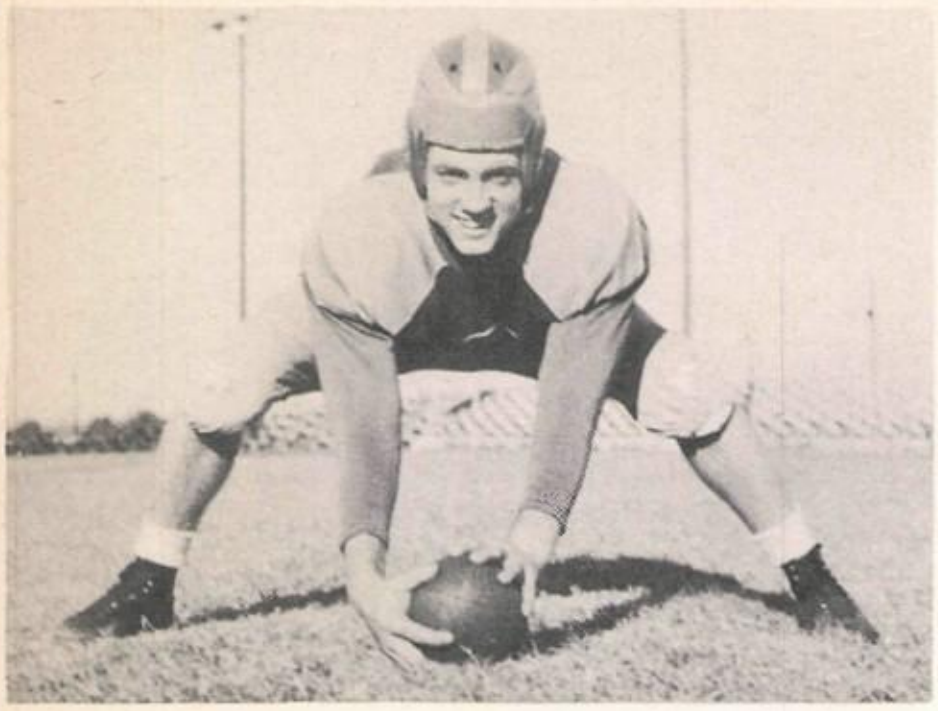
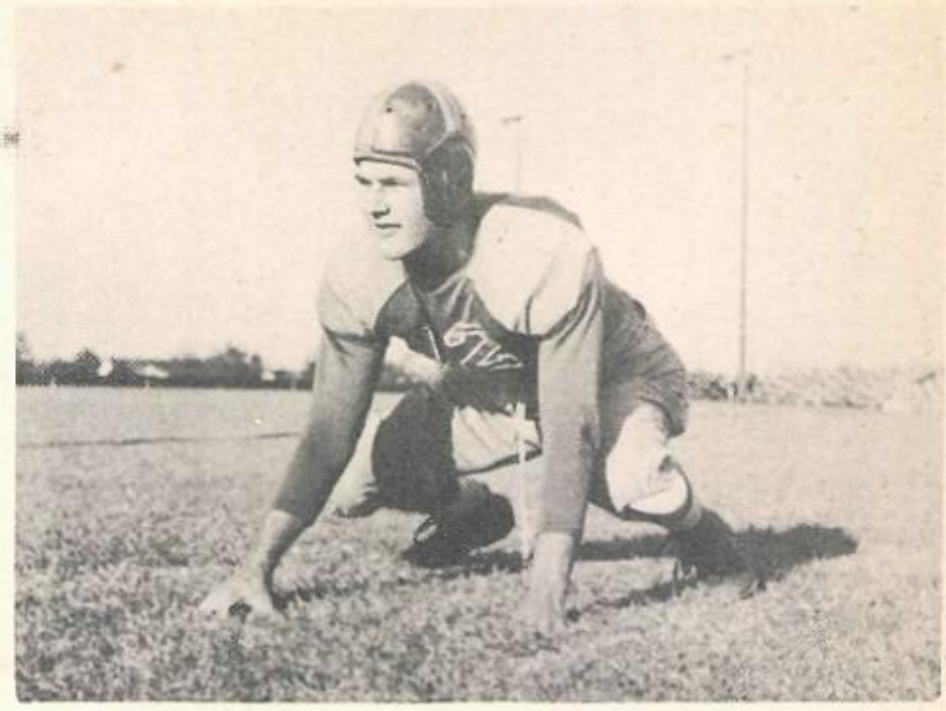
4th Row: Coach Martin; B. Mellard; B. Walker; H. Orem; J. Hallmark; F. Dibrell; B. Davis; D. Williams, Manager.

OREM — Scrappy center, always in the middle of everything . . . Fights hard and clean . . .



STEELE — Reliable, available, dependable . . . Good defensive tackle . . .



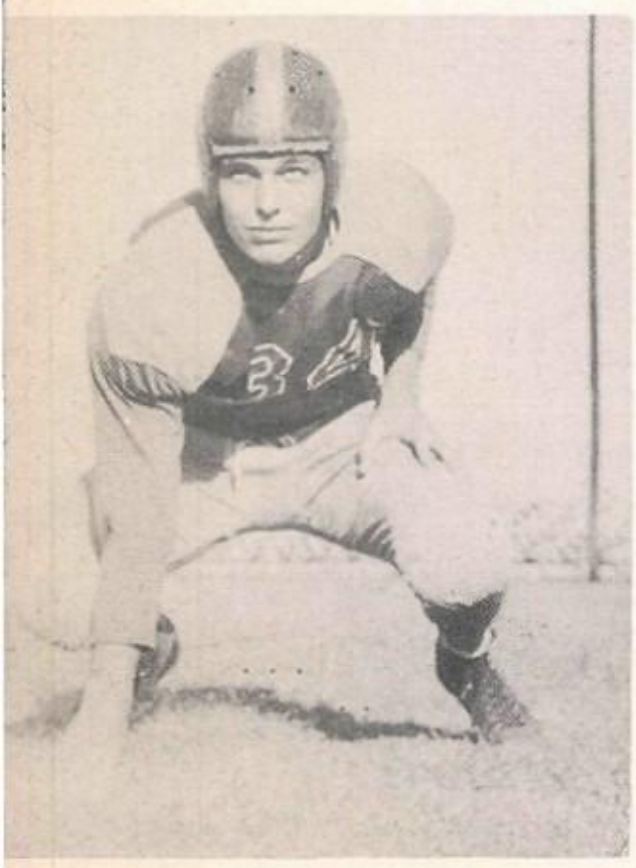
SEASON SUMMARY

Even with ten lettermen and a large number of squadmen returning from the '42 bi-district team, the lightweight Mules were not figured into the 36-A race. However, after a convincing win over Hot Wells, of 53-7, the Mules caused much discussion among all concerned. The most outstanding play of the night was a 90-yard kick return by Bobby Mellard for a touchdown.

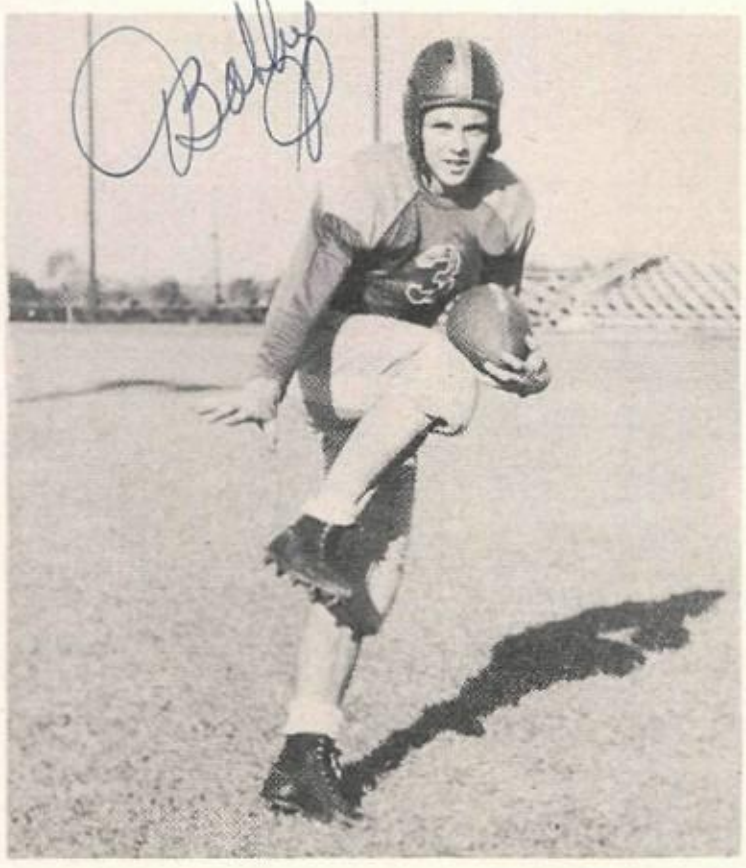
The following week the New Braunfels Unicorns journeyed 30 miles south to play a 6-6 deadlock with the battling Mules. A Harris to Greene pass followed by Mellard's line plunge scored our only points.

After a week off the Mules invaded San Marcos. Touchdowns in the first and third quarters by Mellard and Hunt gave the Mules a 12-0 victory.

An off week gave the Mules plenty of time to smooth things out before taking on the powerful Burbank Bulldogs. Coming out full force, they swamped the Bulldogs 27-0.

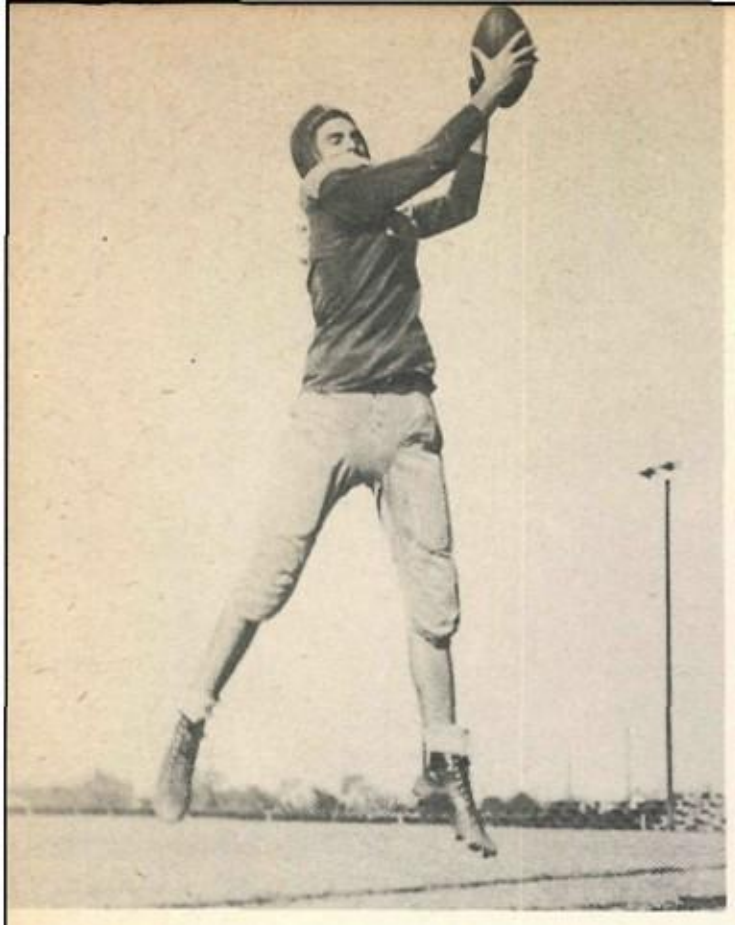


USHICK — Fast charging all-istrict guard . . . Hard tackler nd good blocker . . .



MELLARD — Small, fast, and shifty . . . All-district back . . .

BOO BENSON — All-district guard his Junior year . . . fine defensive player . . .



HAMILTON — "Sticky-Fingers," the pass-catching kid . . .

GREENE — Defensive stonewall . . . All-district pass catcher . . .

ALLEN — Big, lanky hard-pl ing end . . . a good man on defense . . .

The Alamo Heights team overcame a ten-year jinx, beating the Edison Bears 13-0 on their own field. Only once before in ten years had this been done. After a tough first half and a brilliant pass defense led by Malcolm McDaniel the Mules got together and took charge.

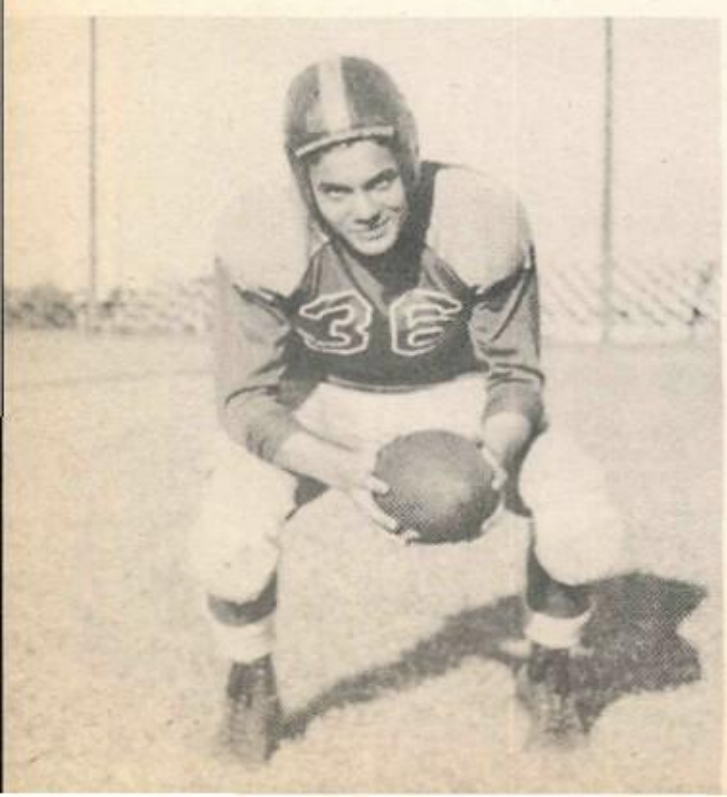
The following week the Mules took an easy win from the South San Bobcats, 33-7. The Mules kicked off to the Bobcats and then made a touchdown on the first play by intercepting a pass.

The Lanier Voks climbed up out of the cellar long enough to get tromped 39-6 by the powerful and smooth-running Mules.

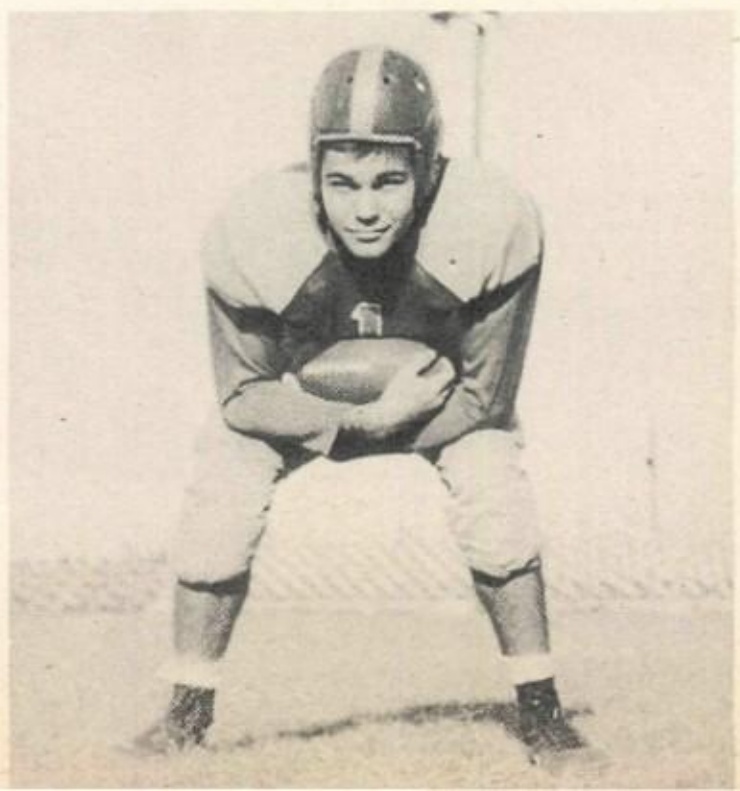
In their last home game the Mules displayed expert blocking, deceptive running, and smooth passing combinations to down the Harlandale Indians 25-0.

Having been undefeated throughout the season, the Mules had once more gained the district champion's throne.

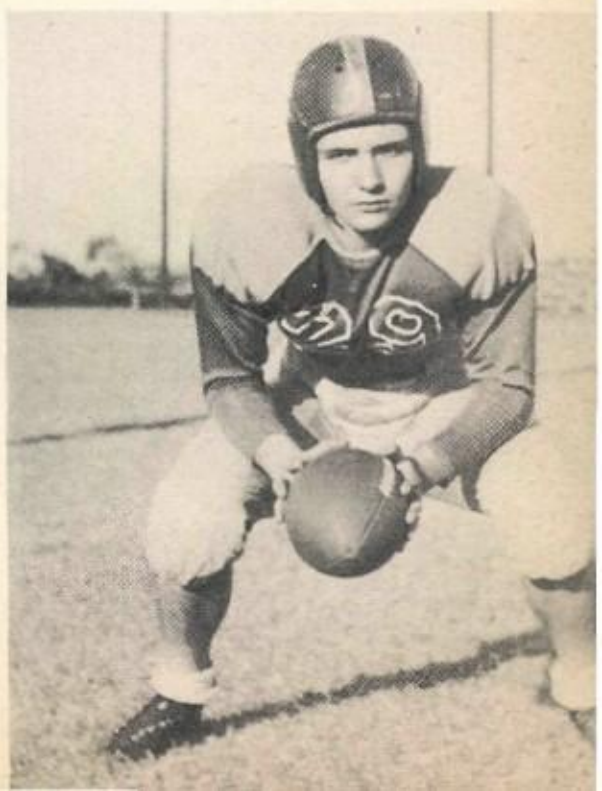
CARTER — Speed-demon, long runs his specialty . . .



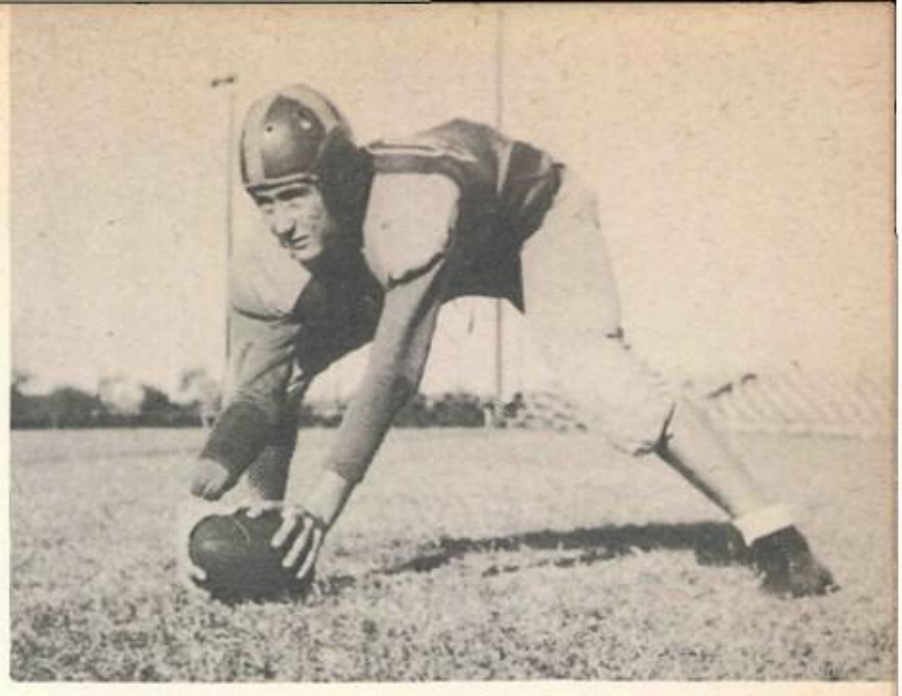
HUNT — One of those rare sophomore starters . . .



HARRINGTON — Good bloc set up many a long run . . .



WALKER — Big, tough center . . . Liked to hit hard . . .

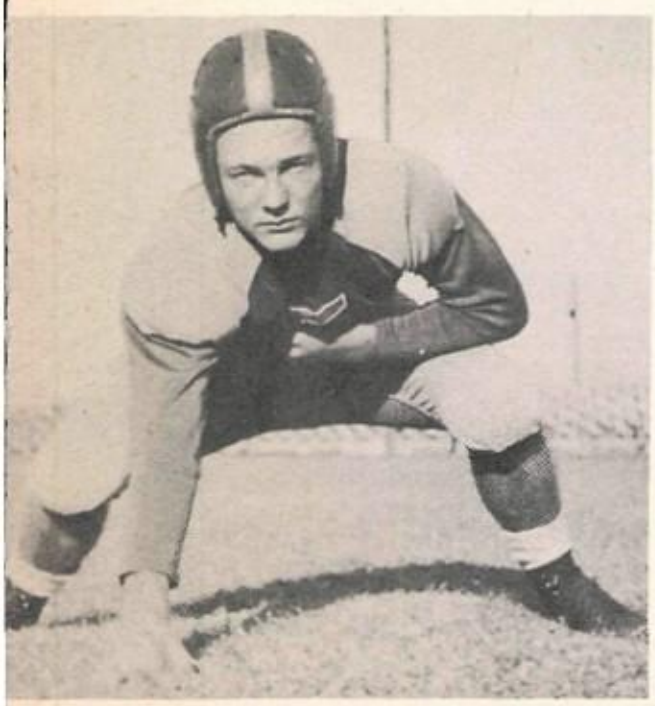


HETRICK — Steady center with a lot of valuable experience to help next year . . .

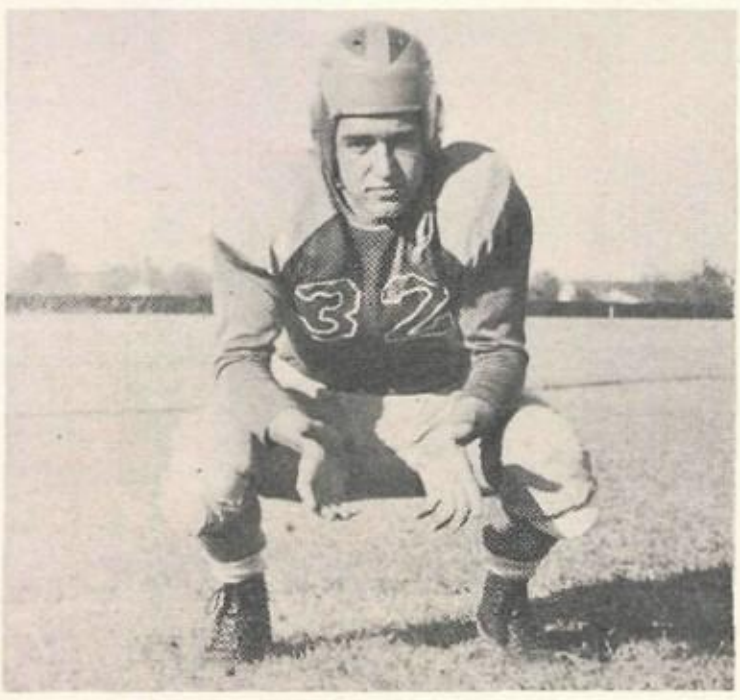
GILLILAND — Mighty rough little guard . . . Stopped everything coming his way . . .

SAUNDERS — Ready to tackle anything in sight . . . Rough, fast, one of the Mules' best tackles.

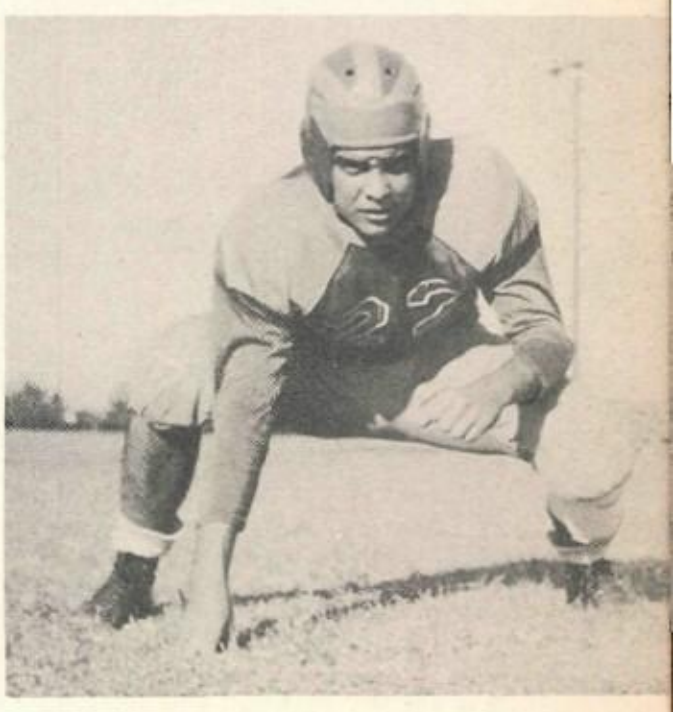
BIECHLIN — Rough and tough guard . . . Played hard . . .



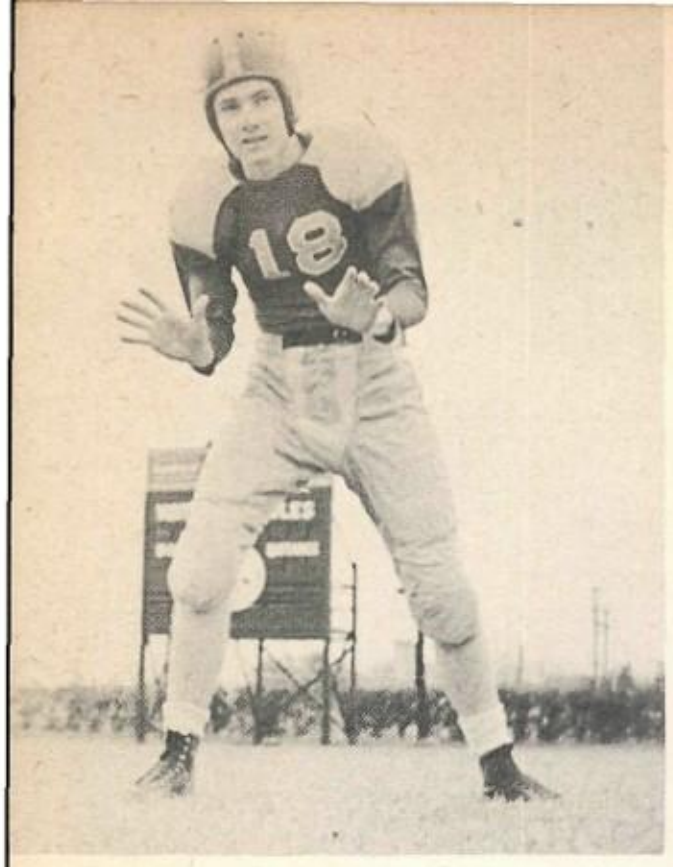
HALLMARK — A fast and deceptive guard with another year ahead of him . . .



A. BENSON — A deadly tackler and a hard runner to stop . . .

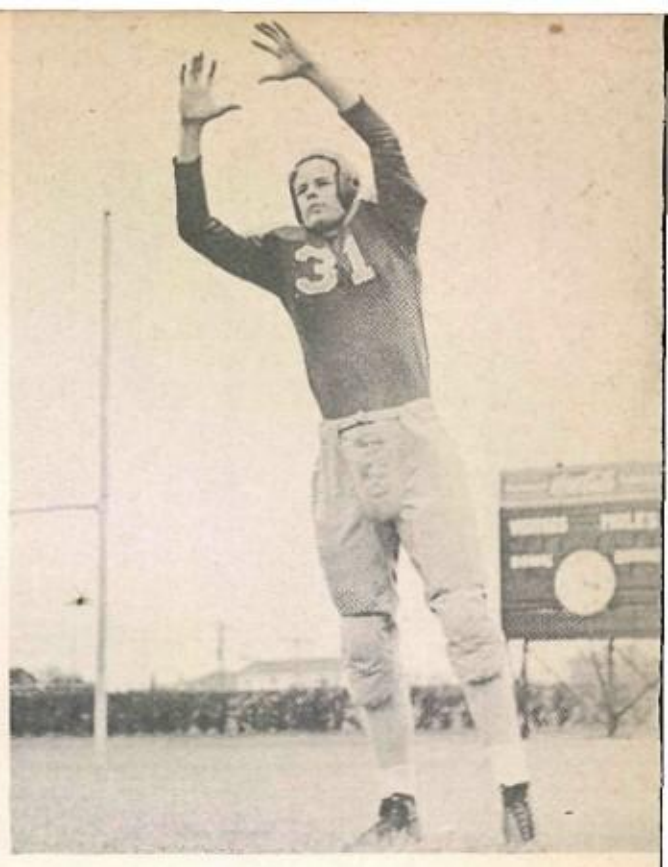


RODRIGUEZ — A rough, tough guard carrying on in his brother's tracks . . .

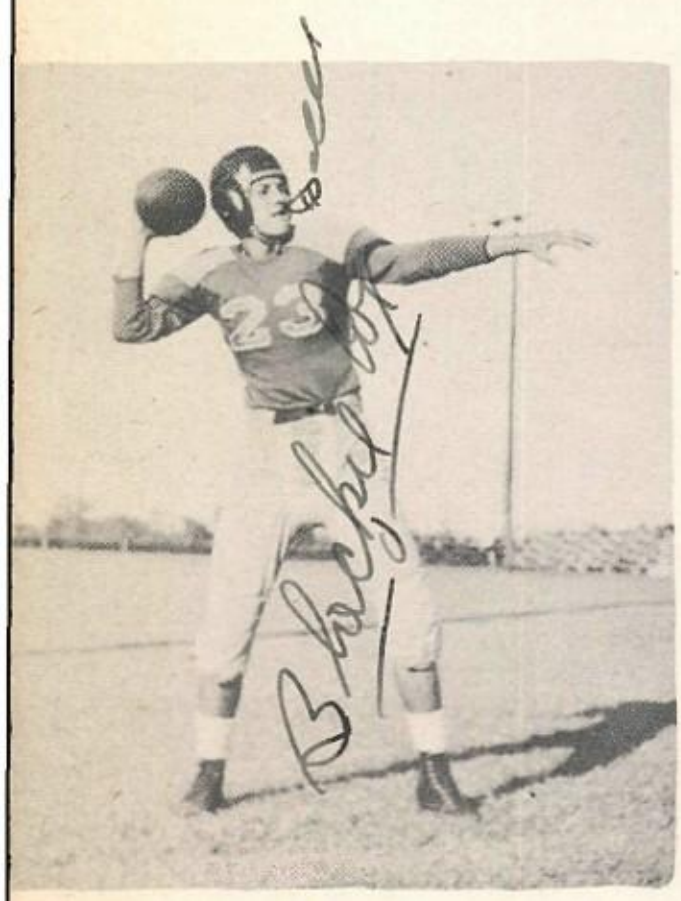


GREEN — When called upon he was great . . . rough and steady

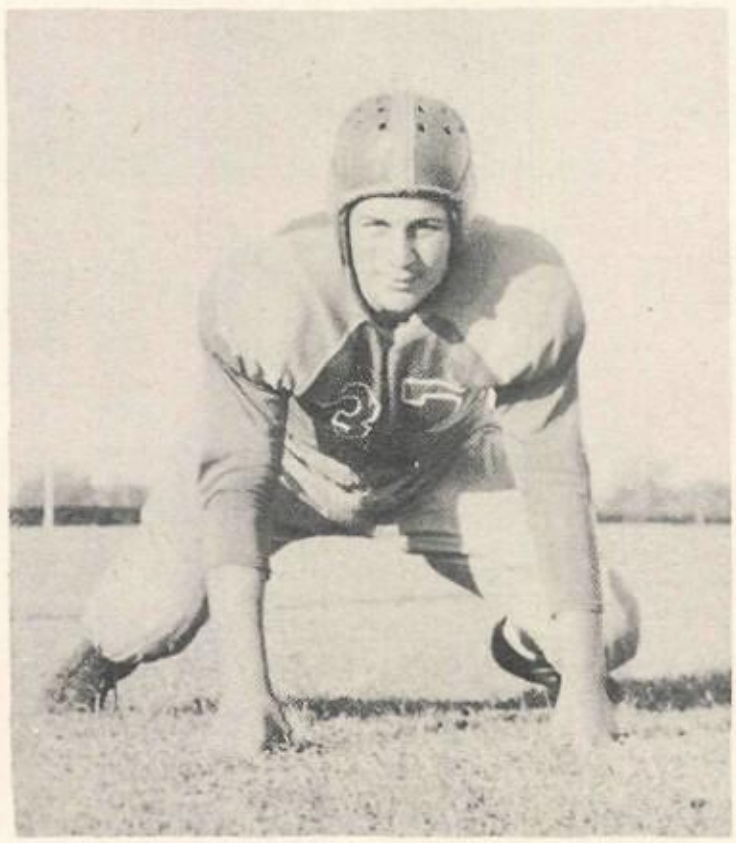
WILLIAMS — A manager of the "first water" . . . Couldn't very well do without him . . .



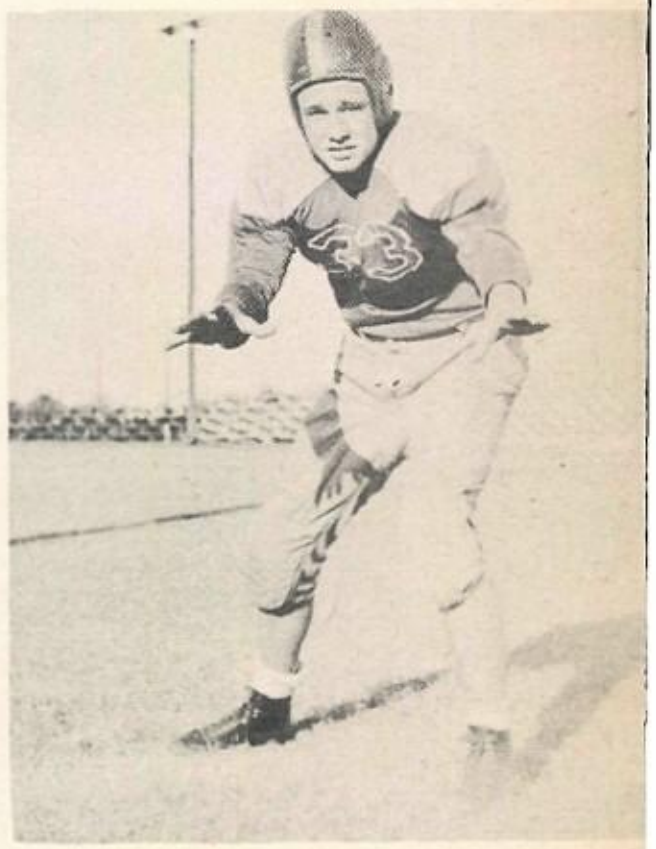
JONES — All-district two years . . . Nuff said . . .



COX — A neat little passer with two more years . . .



GORDON — A charging tackle . . . Battles 'em all the way . . .



WATTS — Always ready, a very capable and "heads up" player . . .

"THE UNVANQUISHED"

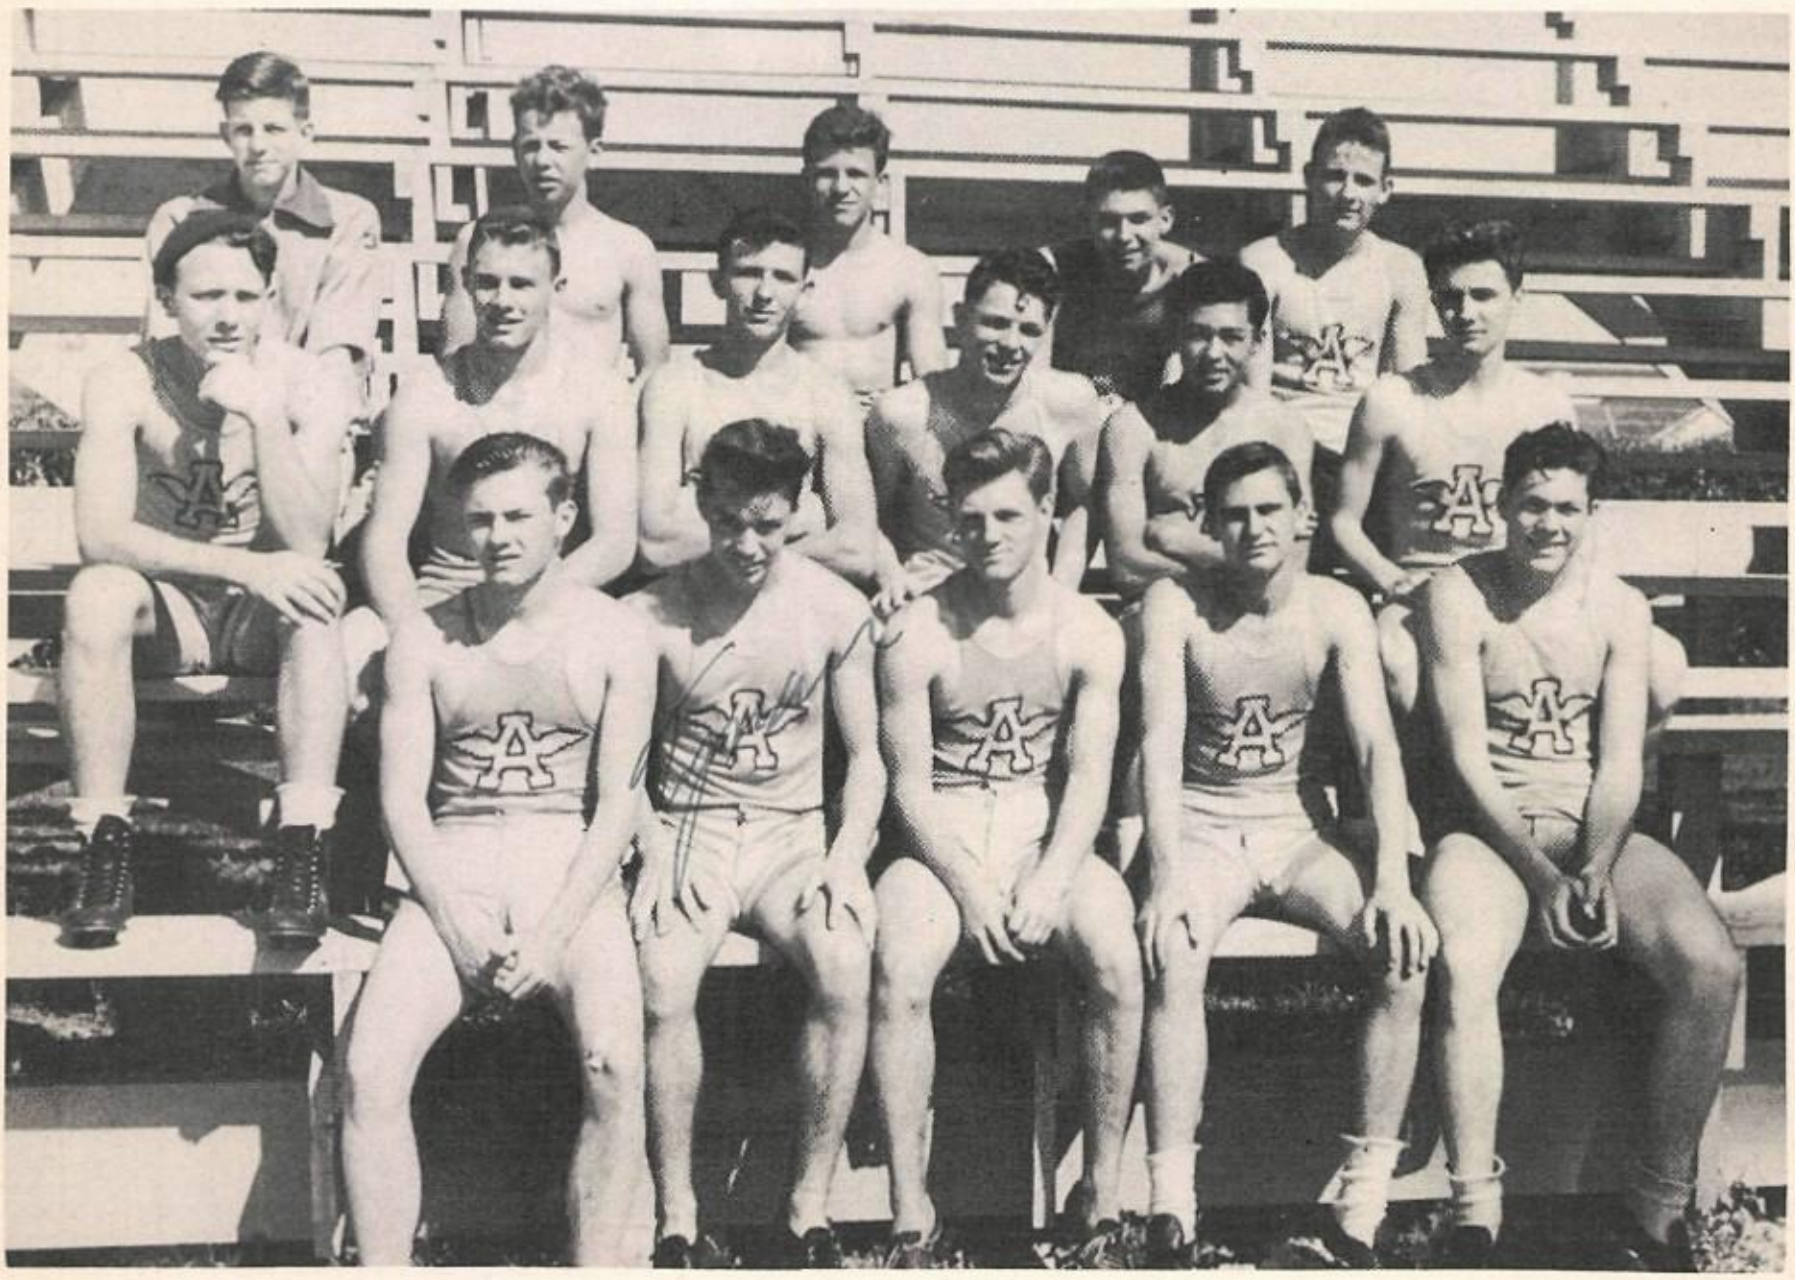
With a two letterman team, Coach Martin took off for the Border Olympics on March 11. After very stiff competition from schools all over the state, he returned with Hank Greene's three points for second in the shot put.

On the following week-end Hank Greene once again scored the only Alamo Heights points with another second in the shot put.

The week-end of March 24, the Mules shone out in the District competition, placing third. As of this year, Hank Greene holds the shot put and discus records and Frank Dibrell holds the record in the mile. Hubert Green, Heights' ace hurdler, placed third in the low hurdles and fourth in the highs to contribute three points to the final score. Orem, with a fourth in the mile, and Sid Greene, with a fourth in the pole vault, boosted the total two more points. The mile relay (Quinn Williams, Larry Hamilton, Judson Blitch, and Bob Bushick) and the sprint relay team (Quinn Williams, Bob Bushick, Harry Orem, and Scott Harrington) received fourth place awards, making a final score of twenty-two points.

The Texas Relays will be run on the first of April. Entered in this Carnival are Hank Greene and Hubert Green in their respective events. Although we will not be able to give the results of the Texas Relays and the Region meets we feel sure our boys will do their best.



First row: Hubert Green, John Tynan, Harry Orem, Larry Hamilton, and Quinn Williams.
Second row: Hank Greene, Jack Watts, Sid Greene, Dick Williams, Frank Dibrell, Scott Harrington.
Third row: Widget Neithamer, Bill Davis, Elkin McGaughy, Judson Blitch, Jim Carhart.

TENNIS

The Tennis Club is the only active girls' athletic organization remaining at Alamo Heights. In December, a meeting was held to elect officers and to draw up the rules of the club. Since that time, a decided interest has grown for tennis, which is one of the main purposes of the Club.

Curtis Smith is president of the organization, with the following officers to assist her: Gerry Straughan, vice-president; Alma Sue Harris, secretary-treasurer; and Pookie Kelleher, sergeant-at-arms.

Alma Sue Harris, Joyce Lewis, and Pookie Kelleher are representing Heights in the district and invitation meets, which will be held after the book has gone to press. But with such diligent practice, under Miss Sims' guidance, can the girls do anything but win? We hope not!

1st Row: C. Farrell, O. Berkey, R. Brady; G. Straughan, vice-president; C. Smith, president; M. Kelleher, sgt.-at-arms; J. Wheat, P. Carter, J. C. Lowe.

2nd Row: B. Woodend, S. Wantland, J. Lewis, J. McConnell, C. Villaret, B. Bruff, H. Robertson, N. Mitchell, P. Sheridan, W. V. Osborne.

3rd Row: B. Hunt, H. Moore, M. Maple, C. Alpert, G. Childs, P. Peyton, J. L. Horner, J. Sturman, E. Farrell, P. Mitchell, P. Whitesides, B. Martin.

Dear Diary

February 4: The Hi-Y's are really supplying some mighty good times. Today was their picnic at Classen's. The barbecued goat tasted good to everyone after football games, picture taking, and hikes. Art really rated, getting to play games with five good-looking girls. These pictures are self-explanatory of the grand time everyone had. Let's have more of this, Hi-Y!!

February 11: During advisory the Favorites were elected and the results were made known fifth period. No wonder Wilson, Pookie, Art, Curtis, Tynan, Irma, Ann Cox, and Nelson Miller look so happy.

February 21: Senior class play tryouts were held Friday, and today the dramatic stars of "War Correspondent," which is to be presented March 24, were announced. Mrs. Bradley seemed to have had a hard time choosing the cast, but with such a grand director, and with such hard working people, the play is sure to be successful.

February 25: Honors are really coming fast and plentiful these days. National Honor Society's new members were announced today and the lucky sixteen students are very happy about their achievement. Heights is proud to honor such outstanding people, too. Pookie, Alma Sue, Joyce, and Miss Sims journeyed to Falfurrias this morning and fared quite well. At least the doubles team knows now what a grand team Corpus Christi has. This was an eventful day indeed. The seniors were measured for their caps and gowns this morning in the study hall. Can graduation really be so close?

Dear Diary

March 8: One of the outstanding assemblies of the year was put on today. Certainly it shall be one of our most-talked-about days in years to come. These pictures tell more than any "Remember the time," however.

March 15: The P. T. A. honored the new National Honor Society and Quill and Scroll members today. Quill and Scroll installation was held; no wonder there are sixteen smiling faces above proudly displayed gold pins.

March 17: Lt. Colonel Lascelles, New Zealand government official, presented a very informative lecture today on international relationships.

March 24: Our Senior dramatists presented "War Correspondent" for us tonight. With only five weeks of practice, Mrs. Bradley and the cast put on a wonderful play, bringing out unknown talents. Most of us will laugh at Jo Anne's "Yep" and "Nope" for days. Everyone was VERY good; wish there could be a Senior play every week!

March 25: The track team won third place in the District meet, while the girls' doubles won the tennis tournament. They'll go to San Marcos April 22 for the Regional meets. Good luck!

Dear Diary

March 29: What a wonderful band we have! Today Mr. Arsers' students entertained us at a concert, with a serious and a humorous side. The thoughts of leaving school become sadder when we realize we're leaving such a grand organization.

March 31: Newly acquired ribbons and pins were presented to the students outstanding in scholarship, service, character, and leadership, as members of the National Honor Society. Dean Paul J. Schwab, of Trinity University, made a speech which we shall long remember. Each of us had a different feeling, one of few during high school days, when we heard "The American's Creed" recited by the new members. If only more of us would seize the opportunity of belonging to this society.

April 3: The Student Council election is becoming "red hot" and tomorrow will tell the tale of who is to be president of the organization next year. This picture will remind us of some of the campaign.

April 4: Well, didn't the best candidate win? More power to you and we hope you and the rest of the Council next year will do your best to keep Heights the BEST school anywhere.

April 10-13: The next to the last six-weeks exams for the Seniors!

Dear Diary

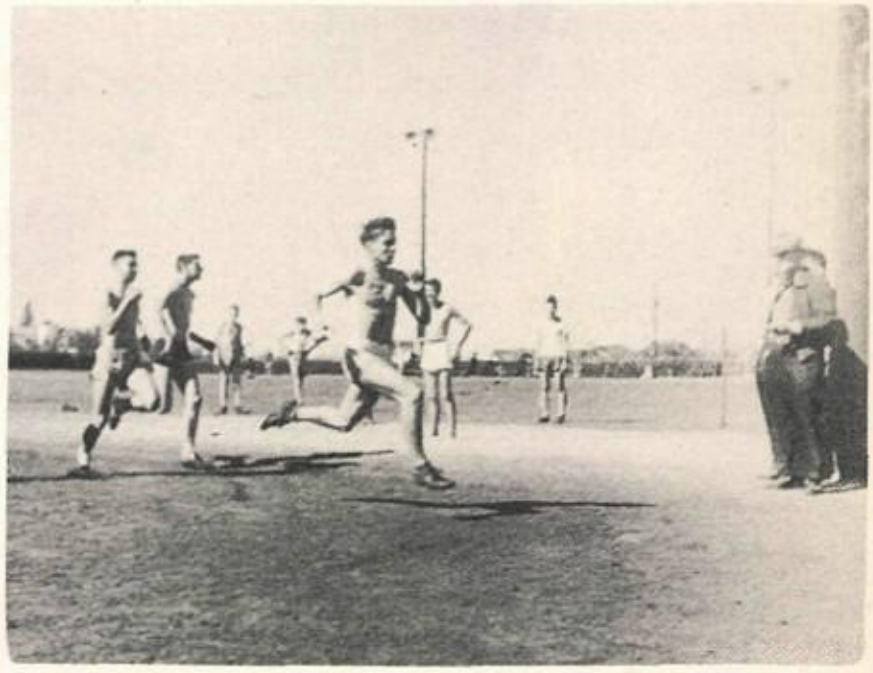
April 14: A Pan-American Assembly was presented today with students portraying comic-strip characters. Art as Joe Palooka, Tex Williams as Li'l Abner, and Roland Caldwell as Alley Oop were humorously realistic. The Heights Invitation Track and Tennis Meet was held today with numerous entries to make them "ruff and tuff" meets.

April 20: Another good time, thanks to the Hi-Y boys. This time they entertained us at a barn dance at school. Everyone and his brother were there to make it a big success.

April 22: We certainly have a right to be proud of our track and tennis representatives. They showed our true school spirit at the Regional meets today, and we ARE proud of you, people.

April 28: The Pep Squad chose the drum major and twirlers for next year today. The results will be announced tomorrow.

April 29: Three darling girls to lead the Pep Squad! We know they'll try hard to live up to the standards set by Mary, Dorothy, and Gloria.



May 16-19: Seniors last six-weeks exams were held on these three days. Just a matter of getting a diploma or not on May 25!

May 18: Only one more week, and then!!! Can we be practically finished so soon?

May 21: Baccalaureate services took place tonight in the auditorium. Just one more meeting of all the Seniors, and that will be Thursday night.

May 25: A long-awaited graduation which has come too fast for many of us, was held today. The end of our high school careers, and all too soon!

McDaniel, Steele, Rodriguez, Hallmark, Hamilton, Bushick, Beichlin, Walker, Gordon, Carter, Allen, Harrington, Mellard, Harris, Green, and Greene led the Camp football squad to seven victories, while only one game was lost and one tied.

On February 11, orders from headquarters read, "Elections of favorites will be held today." After a long waiting period, the results were announced, and our highest officers are Pookie Kelleher and Wilson Carter, chosen Most Representative Girl and Boy, respectively. Art Jones and Curtis Smith were elected Most Popular Students.

Honors continued to come our way during this, our last year at Camp Alamo Heights. Senior play tryouts were held, with the cast of O'Brien, Witte, Millard, Green, Dunnam, Alpert, Gerhold, Hollingsworth, Bruff, and Allen announced; practices started immediately, and on March 24 "War Correspondent," one of the best plays the Camp has ever seen, was produced. Another victory for our Post!

Quill and Scroll and National Honor Society elections brought the outstanding soldiers into the limelight. The journalists were installed on March 15, at a P. T. A. meeting, and the N. H. S. new members were installed on March 31, with the usual impressive ceremonies.

An All-School assembly brought about a welcome hour and a half of entertainment, the best assembly we've had this year. When we are transferred to our new posts, one of the outstanding things among our cherished memories will be this program. Remembering our fellow G. I. buddies, as old ladies (Art Jones, if you recall), young ladies (none other than Lukin), Bobby Mellard and Hubert, "Bones" and all the rest of the Hi-Y cast, as well as all the sighs issued forth as Gerry and Mary and Dorothy came out in the song portrayal; the laughs and howls as we saw Curtis and Pookie; the true corny humor Lily Mae and Beverly, Charlene, and all the other "darkies" made us laugh about, the take-off on the Faculty, which was so realistic, though some of our teachers changed their ways hurriedly enough,—all of these things make us want to say, "Why don't we do this more often?"

Spring brought on another track season at Camp Alamo Heights. After diligent practice, and participation in several track meets, Orem, Hamilton, Bushick, Hank Greene, and Hubie Green were rewarded campaign ribbons by Generals Nystrom and Martin.

The realization that our ranks would soon be filled by less-experienced, but just as capable junior officers, presented itself to us when elections for next year's leaders came about. Immediately after the elections, final maneuvers in the form of our last examinations, took place.

After our training for three years, the Parade of the Year was witnessed by those who had trained and helped us during this time. "Pass in review" and "Eyes right!" were shouted for the last time while passing in view of our permanent commanding officers of Camp Alamo Heights.

The Class of 1944, equipped with the myriad experiences of three full years of drilling and training, marches forth . . .

Dear Jamie,

Well, here 2 am again - But 2 didn't say all 2 wanted to. I see, it's really hard to express in words the feeling Hilma & I have for you — wish we could do more, it really will be funny away from you, & not reading making mistakes. My journal at dear old Heights and Jamie reading yet & sigma chi high office in you & I as a band leader and as pictorial. also Ruth is proud to have you as a member, 2 in years, and you're going to be HIGH in Reiko, too. You're really a wonderful friend, Thanks for sometimes and please write often,
all my love,
Eleanor

Dear Fannie,

Well, this is sorta hard for me to say, because I don't know exactly how to express my feelings towards you. When you started thru ETN I was your big sister, & Fannie, I still feel that way. That may sound silly coming from a girl your age, but what I mean is that whenever you're in trouble or in need of advice, come to me! That's why I was M. RILEY WYATT your big sister in Sigma & I want you to feel that way always. – You're so good lookin' & well groomed & I know you'll go to the top in your Sr. year. Be sweet always honey & don't forget

Love ya' !!
